Dear Mr. Dulles:

You are cordially invited to be the speaker at the annual Mid-Winter Meeting Dinner of this Association which is to be held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel on Monday, January 25, 1960. There will be upwards of 1600 bankers present.

The New York State Bankers Association is composed of the commercial banks in the State of New York and the interests of these banks range from the smallest banks who serve their local communities to the largest banks having world-wide interests.

I am confident that our members would derive a great deal of benefit and would enjoy hearing your views on the complex situation in which we find ourselves today.

We sincerely hope that you will honor us by accepting this invitation.

Sincerely yours,

President
